

Security and Privacy Statement

1. General

Bargelink GmbH is firmly committed to protect your privacy. This Security and Privacy Statement indicates what information Bargelink collects about a Registrant or a Visitor of the Website and what may happen to that information.

2. Applicability

By accessing, browsing or using the Website you acknowledge that you have read, understood and agreed to be bound by the Security and Privacy Statement, notwithstanding the applicability of the Terms and the Marketplace Rules.

3. Privacy

3.1

Bargelink collects, stores and gathers information ("the Data") relating to the Registrant, as well as the Company Administrator of the Registrant, the Sub Users of the Registrant and any other Visitors of the Website (hereafter collectively referred to as "Users"). This concerns the Data submitted by the Users. Bargelink also monitors the behaviour of the Users with regard to the information read through the Website, the request forms and the quotes made. Bargelink uses "cookies" in order to keep track of the visits of its Users. This way Bargelink is able to provide tailored information through the Website. Bargelink also reserves the right to use the Internet Protocol addresses to help identify Users and to improve the performance of the Website.

3.2

Bargelink processes the Data in order to:

- a. determine whether it wants to conclude a Registration Contract with the applicant;
- b. organize the Exchanges;
- c. fulfill its obligations under the Registration Contract, the Terms and the Marketplace Rules, such as the notification of the Quoting Parties and the Shipper or Carrier that has initiated the Exchange about the results of an Exchange.

3.3

Bargelink will also process the Data in order to inform the User about news, information and services related to the Barging Industry and the internet.

3.4

Bargelink may provide the Data to specially selected parties in order to provide the Users information relating to the Barging Industry or information related to the internet, except for the Data concerning the Quotes and transactions made through the Exchanges.

4. Confidentiality

4.1

Bargelink will make every reasonable effort in order to keep all information with regard to the Registrants and the Users strictly confidential, unless indicated otherwise in the Registration Contract, the Terms, the Marketplace Rules or the Security and Privacy Statement. Bargelink reserves the right to disclose any information in order to comply with a legal obligation or in order to prove the indebtedness of a fee.

4.2

Bargelink is entitled to publish information about the Registrant as provided by the Registrant on the Website.

4.3

With regard to an Auction the Shipper or Carrier that has initiated the Auction will be able to view all Quotes, the Users that have placed the Quotes, as well as the Users representing these Registrants. The other Registrants that participate in the specific Exchange are able to view the Prices of the other Quotes only.

5. Security

5.1

Bargelink has taken extensive security measures to prevent the loss, misuse, alteration or destruction of the information provided by its Registrants and Users.

5.2

The Registrant or User is responsible for keeping his passwords secret. The Registrant or User is not allowed to supply his passwords to any third party (see article 2.8 of the Terms).
